

PERSONAL DATA PRIVACY POLICY FOR MARKETING PURPOSES

I confirm that my personal data are correct and consent to their use by AGROLOGY SA in promotional activities for the purpose of providing me with information about new products, activities and services of the company. I wish to receive the above updates through the following indicative methods and technologies (sms, viber, newsletter, mail, etc.).

I have been informed that my data is private and completely confidential and will not be obtained by a third party for the promotion of its own services or products. Only the staff of AGROLOGY SA and its affiliated companies will be the recipients of the data for the above purposes. My data will be kept for as long as the company maintains its business and as long as I maintain a commercial relationship with it.

I have been informed that the company has taken appropriate organizational and technical measures and is fully compliant with the requirements of General Regulation 2016/679 for the Protection of Personal Data. I also know that I have the right to withdraw my consent and to exercise my rights (access, deletion, correction, processing restriction and portability) at any time, by a simple written statement to AGROLOGY SA. I also know that I reserve the right to appeal to the Personal Data Protection Authority (1-3 Kifissias Street, PO Box 23 23, Athens, telephone 210 6475628, e-mail: contact@dpa.gr).

My consent is provided for the above purposes without any contractual obligation or other legal consequence.
